

Miner's Cafe

European Style

15c Hot Plates 15c

AT ALL HOURS

Ice Cream, Ices and Confectionery

Stevie's Old Stand

Choose to Suit Your Fancy

Wall Paper! A New, Large Line. Get First Choice.
Special Values from 10c to 20c per Double Roll

We Handle Kyanize Finish.

HUBBARD'S DRUG STORE, Vestaburg, Mich

RIVERDALE

Miss Ida Pollick visited friends in Elm Falls, Sunday.

Junita Sutton, Esther Horton and Allen Highfield visited the Riverdale public school, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Hill of Flint who has been very ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Edward Miner, is improving nicely.

Mrs. Jack Johnson south of Riverdale was the guest of Mrs. J. Rundio, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant LaFevre of Edmore visited friends in this vicinity last Sunday.

Mr. S. Crum of Seville Center brought a sleighload of young people to the skating rink, Saturday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Highfield were Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. Schaffer at Elm Hall.

Mrs. Alfred Looker was in Alma

Saturday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rowland and son Vergil of Alma spent Saturday evening and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mobilo.

The Junior league of the M. E. church had a business meeting at the home of Miss Lela Carmer, on Friday evening, and elected Miss Rhea Tallon as teacher for the following term, for the older girls and boys and Mrs. Alfred Looker teacher for the younger children. Freddie Looker was elected president and Miss Francis Looker, secretary and treasurer.

The Misses Inez and Marena Owen of Elwell, attended the roller skating rink, Saturday evening.

Miss Francis Looker visited friends in Alma Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport and son Vergil, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leonard, southeast of Riverdale.

Drs. Highfield and Shaffer attended the County Medical society at Alma, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb visited relatives in Alma, the first of last week.

Miss Helen Williams entertained her scholars at a picnic dinner Friday at the school house.

Mrs. Fred Duffy, north of Riverdale, called on friends in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Manley visited relatives in Vestaburg, Friday.

W. H. Phelps, district superintendent, of Lansing, preached in Riverdale, Tuesday morning.

G. Woydt visited his wife in Alma Sunday. Mrs. Woydt has been ill for some time, and is now receiving medical treatment at Brainerd hospital.

The Misses Estalla and Erie Anyer left Monday evening for their home in Port Rowan, Ontario.

Clarence Martin made a business trip to Alma, Saturday.

Miss Irene Pollick has been on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Ira Richards called on friends in Riverdale, Thursday.

Henry Seamen was in St. Louis, Tuesday on business.

Mr. Adam Britten made a business trip to Alma Thursday.

Mrs. Nellie Owen of Vestaburg, spent Monday in Riverdale with her son, Harry, who has charge of his uncle's drug store, during his absence in the south.

W. Plank of New Haven called on friends in Riverdale, Tuesday.

H. M. Miller of Seville Center was in town Friday on business.

Miss Myrtle Isenbale of Alma called on friends in Riverdale, Wednesday.

J. Lippert of Seville Center was a Riverdale.

J. Brownridge visited friends in Grand Rapids, last week.

W. C. McFarren spent Tuesday in Shepherd with his parents.

Miss Francis Rosa was the guest of Miss Helen Williams, Wednesday.

Mr. Walter Swope entertained the Misses Helen Williams, Rea Seemen, and Bertha Hoxie at supper Thursday evening, in honor of her sister Miss Francis Rosa of Wheeler.

Mr. T. D. Meddick of Vestaburg was in town Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holland and daughter visited relatives in Maple Rapids, Friday and Saturday.

A. Looker made a business trip to Vestaburg, Friday.

Earl Sharp of Lake View was in Riverdale, Tuesday on business.

Mrs. R. H. Leonard who recently moved on the Chapman farm, northeast of Riverdale, spent Thursday with Mrs. John Davenport.

Mr. Harry Hall, was an Alma caller Monday.

Mrs. Frank Evans visited friends in Alma Monday.

Miss Hazel Green spent Saturday and Sunday in Saginaw with relatives.

Miss Francis Rosa of Breckinridge is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Walter Swope.

Mrs. Wm. Horton spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Evans of Cedar Lake.

John Spinney of Alma was in town Monday on business.

Mr. Jean Evans of Lansing spent Monday with his cousin Mr. Frank Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds were in Alma, Tuesday on business.

Miss Reid of near Ithaca was the guest of Mrs. Alfred Looker, Tuesday evening.

Mr. George Brownridge was the guest of Mrs. L. A. Carmer Tuesday.

Rev. Albert Baker called on friends in Elwell, Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Mobilo and son Donald visited friends in Alma, Tuesday.

Jasper Norton spent Monday in Elwell on business.

Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Highfield received word Tuesday from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Owen who are spending a month in the south. The word came from Gainesville, Georgia. A fine town with about 7,000 population. Thermometer 40 to 60 degrees. They have taken many trips in the foot hills, and enjoy the climate, scenery and people very much. Expect to return about the 1st of February.

George Allen of Wheeler was in Riverdale, Wednesday, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Hacey, north of town attended the revival meeting in Riverdale, Tuesday evening.

Miss Axie Langon of Alma spent Thursday with her grandmother, Mrs. sister Mrs. Carrie Kerwin, west of spent several days last week with her Riverdale caller Friday.

Mrs. Patrick O'Brien of St. Louis La May.

Miss Pearl Van Leuven called on friends in Riverdale, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kellicut spent Thursday in Vestaburg with Mr. and Mrs. Specks.

Mrs. John Brown of Vestaburg spent Saturday in Riverdale with her son Mr. Fred Brown.

Miss Carrie Wolfgang entertained quite a number of her girl friends at a birthday party Friday evening.

Mr. Fred Reynolds was in Alma Wednesday evening and Thursday morning on business.

Mrs. C. Parkinson and son Dale of Owosso are spending a few days with Mrs. Parkinson's mother, Mrs. L. A. Carmer.

Miss Rhea Tallon who has been attending Alma high school for the past two years and a half completed her work there this week.

Justin Cash of Alma visited friends in Riverdale, Friday.

Archie Wood of Alma was a Riverdale visitor Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Andrews south of Elm Hall were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rundio, Friday.

Mrs. F. Shoen of near Crystal spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miner.

Miss Leah Knee, Deaconess, who is holding revival meetings at Carson City, spent Saturday evening in Riverdale and preached at the M. E. church.

Miss Knee assisted in the meetings in Riverdale for several weeks, and her coming here Saturday evening was a pleasant surprise to all. Her talk was excellent and the meeting a successful one throughout the whole evening.

FERRIS

(Intended for last week)

C. Swarthout of Crystal was a week end guest of his brother E. J. Swarthcut.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gott of Colorado are the guests of F. L. Gott.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hare and child were in Riverdale, Wednesday.

Miss Winnie Wilson was confined to her home the latter part of last week with tonsillitis.

Nila Beach spent several days in Grand Rapids last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Alma were week end guests of Will Lenhart the father of Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. William Skinner of Chicago visited with George Wilson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Gott returned Saturday after a very pleasant visit in Ionia.

The Mennonites held baptismal services at their church, Sunday.

Several Ferris people attended the Farmer's Institute at Vestaburg, Tuesday.

E. W. Thompson lost a valuable Jersey cow, Monday.

TOWN LINE

Mr. and Mrs. Holly Wright of Carson City and former residents of here are the proud father and mother of a child which was born last week.

Al. Wiley was in Ithaca on business last Friday.

Mrs. William Sloan is with her daughter Mrs. Daniel Goggin of Alma. For the past few weeks she has been the guest of her other daughter, Mrs. William Rogers.

Hazel Snyder completed her eighth grade work in the Alma public schools January 22. Owing to illness of her mother she will remain out of school for the remainder of the year and will enter high school next fall.

Fred Rockefeller south of here will be one of the jurors at the January court at Ithaca.

Miss Cora Isham returned home after spending a week with Mrs. Moffett of Alma.

Ray Webb was in Riverdale visiting his uncle William Webb and also calling on relative and friends.

Cleo Walker of Alma spent Saturday with George Isham.

Donald Snyder is staying with his grandmother Mrs. John Snyder and attending school in Alma.

Mrs. Ruby Flower who is teaching school at the Brick school has come to board with Mrs. Al. Wiley during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shong of Alma has been caring for their daughter-in-law Mrs. John Shong who has been very sick for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Shong have the sympathy of all the residents of this vicinity. Two of their daughters recently underwent an operation.

Vern Currence a son of Edward Currence formerly of this vicinity but now a resident of Northern Canada arrived here Monday and will be the guest of his uncle H. B. Currence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Church spent Sunday with Tom Beattie and family at Alma.

Mrs. H. B. Currence has been ill for the past week.

Mrs. H. J. Hyde has been ill for the past week.

Mrs. E. L. Bambrough spent Friday with Mrs. Albert Searles.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyr of Alma were the guests of J. H. Church last week.

A large crowd attended the meeting of the Arcadia Farmer's club which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamline, Thursday.

William Gerrard attended the supper which was given by the Macabee ladies at Elwell last Saturday evening.

George Lintz and sister Anna attended the party which was given by the Catholic church in Alma at the home of Postmaster Cash. Fifty attended and a very fine time was enjoyed by all. There will be another party next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wynne given by the members of the same church.

Miss Fern Nelson is teaching school at Sumner for a short time taking the place of the regular teacher who is ill with the mumps.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Way, Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frosch of Alma are with their daughter Mrs. Way.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanley were in St. Louis on business, several days ago.

James Porterfield attended the Gleaners meeting which was held in Alma last Saturday.

Mrs. Wesley Webb was in St. Louis recently caring for her sister-in-law Mrs. Arthur Child who has been quite ill for some time.

Mrs. L. Muhn is gradually improving from her illness.

Howard Potter the county commissioner of schools was a visitor at the Brick school last Thursday.

Leon Lintz who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Parlus for the last few weeks returned to the home of Mrs. John Snyder and will remain there during the remainder of the winter.

Miss Florence Caribbs east of Alma is helping Mrs. H. J. Hyde with her housework for several weeks.

Mrs. Clinton Nelson of Alma has been visiting Lyle Nelson and family. Mrs. Herbert Nelson accompanied her on her return to Alma and will be her guest for several days.

Dr. J. N. Brainerd of Alma was called to the home of Ely Wolfe on account of sickness last week.

CARSON CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Lail Peters of Perrinton, visited at the home of the former's aunt Mrs. W. H. Nelson, a few days last week.

Joseph McMullen returned from St. Louis, the first of the week after taking treatments at the sanatorium for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell moved to their farm home at Bloomer Center the last of the week.

Amos Every has sold his town residence to J. C. Goolthrite of Hubbardston.

Clayton Miniker is moving into the house vacated by Fred Mitchell.

William Hutting who has been on the sick list is slowly recovering.

Mrs. E. R. Scott who has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank

THIRTY
MEN'S Overcoats

with convertible collars
will be placed on sale

Friday, January 22

AT

$3.98
each

Everyone should have an overcoat at these prices

G. J. Maier
The Clothing Man
ALMA

Bennett, returned home the latter part of the week.

Miss Jennings of Lyons is visiting at the home of her brother Don Jennings.

Stephen and Robert Carr of Sumner, visited at the home of W. H. Nelson one day last week.

Jessie Walker of Pompeii visited at the home of his sister Mrs. H. J. Garlock, the first of the week.

Hazel Miner who has been employed at the postoffice for several months is taking a vacation.

A. B. Goodwin made a business trip to Ionia last week.

Patrick Tucker and Clayton Miniker attended the automobile show at Detroit last week and secured the agency for the Grant auto.

Mrs. Basel Sperling has been on the sick list the past week.

While playing basket ball at Lakeview, Willard Inman had the misfortune to break his arm.

Mr. Burkholder of Greenville, has purchased Mrs. John Chamberlain's residence.

Miss Knee who is holding revival services at the M. E. church and Miss Crossman one of the high school teachers drove to Riverdale, Saturday evening where Miss Knee preached to a good audience.

The Murphy estate has been sold to George siple of Greenville.

Fred Clunk began working Monday morning for Frank Emerson.

The basket ball game played Friday night between the Carson and Sheridan teams was won by the Carson boys.

The services held at the M. E. church have been well attended and several have been converted.

J. D. Van Syckle went to Ionia, Friday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Alsbaugh.

Miss Bessie Fike who has been quite sick with diphtheria is slowly improving.

Mrs. H. V. Wade was called to Wisconsin, Friday by the death of her brother's wife.

The Farmer's institute which was held here last week was well attended.

Studebaker

WHEN you buy a Studebaker car you are not offered an experiment. Studebaker has manufactured vehicles for sixty-three years. There is no manufacturer of transportation equipment more familiar with the demands of transportation service. The name Studebaker stands for absolute reliability. Hundreds of delivery cars are in service in all parts of the world. They are being operated successfully and economically in all classes of business under all conditions of roads and streets. They are beyond question a proved product. There are letters in the Studebaker office received from satisfied owners from all parts of the country. If this car is adapted to your needs and you care to investigate, we will be glad to demonstrate for you at any time. We have a fine display of cars in our garage at 213 E. Superior.

Come in during the Poultry Show and then become a regular patron

M. L. PERRIGO

ALMA,
MICH.